

I am extremely upset by Sinclair Broadcasting forcing their stations to show an anti Kerry documentary. Is this a free country? I don't feel like I'm living in America any more, but that our exposure to opinions from all sides is being eroded away. Is this how Republican's act? I'm sure glad that I'm a democrat!!!! I hope that the FCC can uphold the rights of tv stations to show whatever programs that they want.